CLINTON IMPEACHMENT INQUIRY BEGINS

Georgia Rep. Bob Barr has formerly requested that the House Judiciary Committee begin an impeachment inquiry against both Bill Clinton and Al Gore. Rep. Barr said:

"I call into serious question the fitness of Clinton and Gore to hold the nation's highest office. I believe that looking at all of their offenses, they rise to the level of impeachment. The power of impeachment was put in to the Constitution to remove any official who abused their office. This is precisely what happened."

Barr said that the most serious offense was the acceptance of money from foreign countries in violation of federal law. His request goes to the House Judiciary Committee headed by Rep. Henry Hyde of ILL. Hyde said: "We shall study the laws of impeachment and the procedures of impeachment. We want to be ready for whatever happens."

Rep. Newt Gingrich, who is third in line for the Presidency, approved of the inquiry and said that what Nixon was accused of when he resigned while facing impeachment was insignificant when compared to all of the charges facing Clinton and Gore!

Clinton Lied About FBI Warnings On Red China

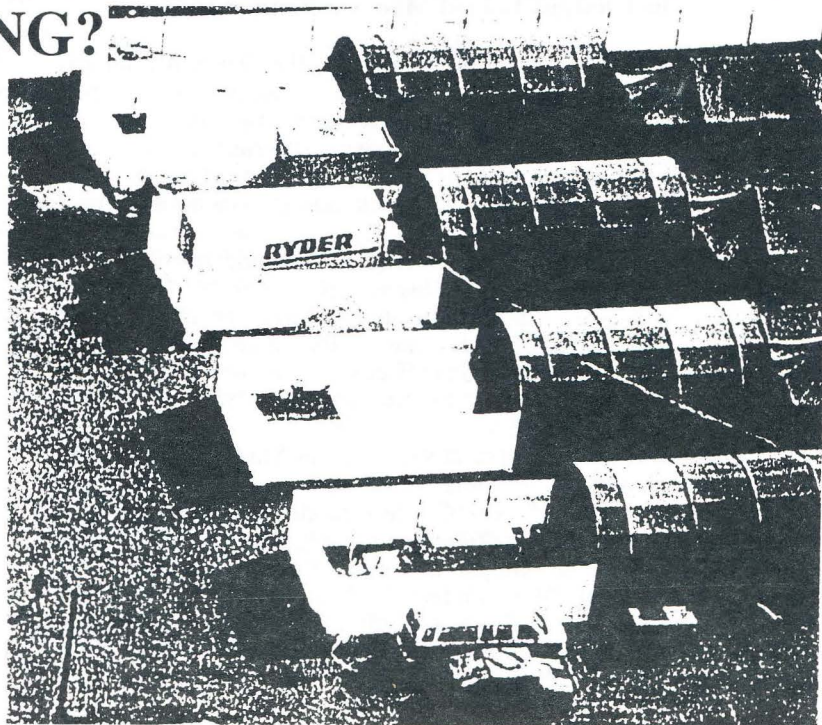

The FBI, on June 3, advised two members of Clinton's "National Security Council," (NEC), that Communist China was planning on funneling money to the National Democratic Committee in return for favors. Associated Press reports that the NEC members who received this warning were Rand Beers and Edward Appel (both Jews). Clinton says that the FBI told them to keep this a secret from him. The FBI says this is not true. Clinton says the FBI is lying! Who are we to believe?

The Lippo Bank in Indonesia, which has joint ownership with Red China in a Hong Kong bank, sent some $2 million to Clinton through their agent John Huang. Clinton appointed Huang as Deputy Secy. Of Commerce with a security clearance. Huang has taken the Fifth Amendment and is presently living in seclusion.

WHY WAS RYDER TRUCK HIDDEN ON MILITARY BASE BEFORE BOMBING?

In the Fall of 1994 concerned citizens noticed an unusual military encampment being built in Oklahoma. it was located near Braggs, OK. at Camp Gruber. One of the things that seemed unusual about the encampment was the white opaque fencing that surrounded the compound. It appeared that whatever the operation was, that they were trying to hide it from the public. Then, in April 1995 a pilot flew over the camp and spotted a yellow Ryder van in one of the enclosed stalls. On closer inspection of the photographs taken were barrels. Immediately after the bombing this camp was completely dismantled. Patriot investigators can't help but wonder if there was a connection with this encampment and the Oklahoma City bombing. Was this a CIA operation? Did they switch vans and frame McVeigh? it is impossible for the average citizen to arrive at any concrete conclusions when secret government agencies operate covertly with impunity. Did we ever find out who shot Kennedy? Will we ever know the absolute truth behind the bombing in Oklahoma City? Who has benefited from the bombing? Certainly not the patriots of America.

American political system. Foreign favoritism on this Clintonian scale is an economic evil never visited on us before. That's why we must expose and root out the insidious networking of the Clintons and the billionaire Indonesian wheeler-dealers."

Impeachment Offense No. 2 Clinton Worked To Give U.S. Naval Base To Communist China

The FBI reports Warning six members of Congress that they had been chosen by Red China to receive contributions. Listed thus far are Sen. Dianne Feinstein, Sen. Barbara Boxer, Rep. Nancy Pelosi, (the other three being unknown as of this writing). It is no accident that Communist China expected these radical left-wingers to do their bidding. All three originally approved of allowing China to purchase the closed U.S. Naval Base in Long Beach, Calif. Belatedly, to cover their tracks, they have now asked Clinton's Secy of Defense, William Cohen and National Security Advisor Sandy Berger (both Jews - just as are Feinstein and Boxer) to see if there is any "security question." We say there is no doubt about it. The China Ocean Shipping Co., (COSC), has agreed to lease the base from the city of Long Beach for $14.5 million. COSC agents were arrested last year for smuggling 2,000 illegal weapons into the U.S. to sell to Los Angeles street gangs. Their ships have brought illegal Chinese aliens here, It was a decrepit COSC ship which crashed into a crowded boardwalk in New Orleans. After Red agent Johnny Chung donated $366,000 to the National Democratic Party, Clinton held two meetings to press Long Beach to make the deal. He also invited Chung and six COSC Communist representatives to sit in on one of his White House radio broadcasts. However, Clinton ordered that no photos be taken. Clinton must have known that here was a threat to U.S. National security - however he didn't care - the donations were far more important!

Thus, it is easy to understand the reasons why Communist China seeks to buy influence from Clinton and the six liberal Democrats in the Congress.

Impeachment Offense No. 3 The Clintons Looted Madison Bank of Millions

Whitewater is the 230 acre resort in the Ozark Mountains where the Clintons planned to build 42 vacation homes. They put nothing down and borrowed $203,000 from the Madison Bank for the project. Just before it went bankrupt, Clinton sold his share to his partner Jim McDougal for $1,000. Then Gov. Clinton had appointed the state bank regulator who approved the deal.

Jim Hale, serving 28 months for fraud, testified that Clinton pressured him to "loan" $150,000 to Gov. Jim Tucker which was supposed to help "minority and women owned businesses." He said some of the money went to the Whitewater development. Gov. Tucker was found guilty of fraud in the misuse of $1.5 million borrowed from the Madison Bank.

Hillary Clinton was a lawyer for the Madison Bank. She drafted legal papers claiming sham land sales to justify the bank loans for the 450 acre Castle Grande real estate project. Don Denton, chief loan officer for the Madison Bank, warned her that this was an illegal action to obtain loans with no personal collateral. She "summarily dismissed" Denton. Later Hillary destroyed all these records. She has denied these charges under oath and faces perjury charges and other offenses.

Clinton Ordered Mass Naturalization of 1.3 Million Aliens As Citizens to Register Them To Vote

Clinton's "Citizenship USA" program pressured the Immigration Service to register a record 1.3 million aliens as citizens in 1996. They quickly followed this up and registered them to vote. The current immigration law is designed that 90% of all immigrants will be non-Whites. The Democrats believe that they will vote for them. Democrats are perceived to be more pro-immigrant, pro-welfare and pro-civil rights. The Justice Dept. has admitted to the House Oversight Committee that the rush to naturalize aliens was so swift that 180,000 were not checked for criminal records. Later they found that 71,557 did have arrest records. The Truth At Last

CHINA ACQUIRES U.S. TECHNOLOGY FOR MISSILES

Top Clinton aide, George Stephanopolis was replaced by Erskine Bowles. Who is Erskine Bowles? He was the top man in the Entergy Corporation prior to his Whitehouse appointment.

The Red Chinese arms merchant, John Huang, worked with Entergy Corp. buying up sophisticated computers and software, and electronic, and telecommunications technology to be used in Red Chinese missile guidance systems.

On two occasions, Sept. '95 & May '96, during regular daily briefing sessions, defense intelligence and Central Intelligence briefers advised the President that "highly sensitive electronic and computer equipment is being shipped to the People's Republic of China from the North Carolina based Entergy Corp." The President advised the briefers that the Pentagon had assured him that only obsolete equipment and software was being shipped.

All efforts by the briefers to discover who in the Pentagon had made these assurances were met with negative responses. It is almost certain that the President lied to the briefers.

30 MILITARY FAMILIES SUDDENLY LEAVE U.S.

Col. Jim Ammerman is the military chaplain that has been exposing what is going on in the military concerning the plans of the one world conspiracy. In a recent interview on short wave radio with Chris Gerner, Col. Ammerman reveals that some of his air force friends have sold their homes and their cars and have suddenly moved their families out of the 48 states. They could not reveal exactly what they were told, but they did say that they saw orders or plans that something was going to happen in America, and when it did there could be a 50% death rate nationwide. They decided to leave the country, and wouldn't say where they were going. This a riveting interview from a very credible Christian military man.

Should Clinton Be Impeached?

By Rick Weder - Staff Writer

The impeachment of a president is a very serious matter. When President Richard Nixon was faced with a congressional hearing and possible impeachment, he decided to resign from the office of president. When you look back at Nixon's tenure in office, he had a vice President who was indicted and resigned (Agnew) and then he appointed a vice president (Ford) who eventually became president. President Ford then appointed a vice president and for the first time in the history of America we had no elected president or vice president, all because of the possibility of the elected president being impeached.

A bill of particulars must be garnered in order for impeachment proceedings to begin and in order to get a bill, there must be substantiated charges. In order to make those charges, the president must make certain violations of public law, not public trust. When you look at the Clinton Administration, one must wonder if such things as Travelgate, Troopergate, Whitewater, Filegate, Nannygate, etc. are grounds for impeachment proceedings.

Then you have such incidents where the abuse of government authority is evident, such as Waco, Ruby Ridge, investigation of Vince Foster's death, Commerce Secretary Ron Brown's death and William Colby's death. There are also indications of White House interference in the criminal investigations of Representative Ford from Tennessee, Agriculture Secretary Espy, HUD Secretary Cisneros, Energy Secretary O'Leary, Veteran's Affairs Secretary Brown, and the list goes on and on.

If this is not enough, how about the abuse of power when President Clinton held up passenger air traffic by shutting down two runways at Los Angeles International Airport while he received a $200.00 haircut on Air Force One, or when he allowed his White House Administrator to use a presidential helicopter to go golfing or when he halted the drug testing of White House Staff Members or when he stopped the Filegate investigation by claiming executive privilege?

Also, Clinton has stated that all of our school children need to be dressed in uniforms. (Remember, Hitler did that in the thirties) He has also stated that all school aged drivers need to be drug tested in order to keep their driver's license (remember Clinton stopped White House staff drug testing). He also has had convicted drug dealers as visitors to the White House and he seems to have a fatal attraction about him, as many of his associates have mysteriously turned up dead. His latest antic is to require that all airline passengers be computer profiled with complete travel history, criminal background and financial data checked every time you board an aircraft.

It seems that President Clinton has had time for all sorts of games and all President Richard Nixon had was one game, Watergate. Congress needs to wake up and listen to the voice of the American people and take action and get our government and president under control before we have no government to get under control.

As an American citizen you have the duty and responsibility to oversee your government and to take corrective action when our government goes astray. After you review the facts you and only you can make the decision to call and write to your senators and congressional representatives and voice your opinion and demand action. Better yet, write to any and all members of the Senate and Congress that you want to and let them know how you feel. That way, the word will get out to more than one or two.

The choice is yours. Better government is the responsibility of all of us, not just those

PREACHER HARRASSED BY SECRET SERVICE

"God Will Hold You To Account, Mr. President."

Steve Myers - Exegesis

Just last week, Matthew Schenck, the teenage son of our good friend, Reverend Robert Schenck, General Secretary to the National Clergy Council, was lamenting that nothing exciting ever seemed to happen. That was then. This is now. On Christmas Eve, your editor invited a small group of friends, including the Schenck family, to a service at Washington's National Cathedral, which was also attended by the President and his family. The service provided a rare opportunity to share a few words with the Churchgoer-in-Chief, and as we made our way up to communion, several people offered him Christmas greetings. Concerned for the President's spiritual well-being, Reverend Schenck's Christmas gift was in the form of eight well-chosen words. In a scriptural admonition referring to the President's veto of the partial-birth abortion ban, he said quietly and respectfully: "God will hold you to account, Mr. President."

The President appeared shocked at hearing this truth and activated his eager Secret Service. As the choir made their way down the center aisle singing "What Child Is This", the Reverend was accosted and prevented from leaving the Cathedral. One Secret Service agent reached inside the minister's jacket, pulled out his wallet and started rifling through it in a 15-minute spectacle which left eyewitnesses, including your editor, wondering whether they had been suddenly transported not to Bethlehem but to Beijing. The Secret Service apparently observe no boundaries once they decide, in their own unique interpretation of reality, that the President's life is threatened. By the time we left the Cathedral, the Reverend's Drivers License had not been returned, and out on Wisconsin Avenue, eight members of the Secret Service, having taken a shortcut, blocked the sidewalk in a tactic your editor had not seen since a 1981 visit to Moscow.

This was neither Beijing nor Moscow but Washington, Capital of the Free World, yet these actions were those of a paranoid regime in an advanced stage of terminal decay, reminiscent of the final days of the Soviet Union. If the President feels threatened by God's word, it is not because his life is under threat, but because his Eternal Life is under threat, and that is beyond the jurisdiction even of the Secret Service.

The White House refused to acknowledge that these events had taken place. Would they say that planting three rows of black people immediately behind the President was a coincidence? It is an insult to anyone to be used as a stage prop. It has often been reported that President Clinton is a showman who lacks substance. These events witnessed with our own eyes support that theory and also illustrate his ruthlessness. If this was his reaction to a scripture, can one imagine what he does to some-

TRADE-THE TROJAN HORSE OF CHINAS SECRET WAR PLANS

'BY OPENING THE DOOR OF CHINA-U.S. RELATIONS, WE ARE OPENING THE DOOR WHICH LEADS TO REVOLUTION IN THE U.S.' HUANG HUA 1977

By Robert H. Goldsborough

On July 30, 1977, at a gathering of top communist party officials, Red China declared war on the United States. During briefings on the long range strategy for communizing America, Huang Hua, China's vice premier and foreign minister announced, "We are discussing trade with the U.S. with the view to expanding it and opening the door wider, to take advantage of the opportunities it presents to build socialism at home and abroad."

Mao Tse-tung and his successors have studiously adhered to the principles of warfare as detailed in the classic text "The Art of War" by the 5th century BC Chinese tactician Sun Tzu. His basic tenet was simple: all warfare is based on deception, and the Chinese communists have consistently proven their skills in the art of deception. For example, since 1977 they have been offering their enemies the trojan horse of trade. Hua stressed that by increasing trade between China and America opportunities would develop for fomenting a revolution within the United States." The U.S. is a developed capitalist nation whose industrial workers are very powerful and constitute a vast reservoir of strength for revolution. By means of such exchanges, Marxism-Leninism will be propagated there, and like seeds, will take hold, grow and flourish. This would accelerate the nurturing of the domestic revolutionary movement in the U.S. By opening the door of China-U.S. relations, we are opening the door which leads to revolution in the U.S." (The Review of the News 1/23/80, page 38)

Sun Tzu advised, "war must be preceded by measures designed to make it easy to win." In the 1960's the House Committee on UNAmerican Activities received intelligence data revealing Red Chinese plans to give drugs to U.S. troops in SouthEast Asia, starting with Korea and continuing through the Viet Nam war, to demoralize them and to create a subsequent drug problem in the U.S. And now as the arrests of the Chinese gun smugglers reveal, the current communist Chinese leaders, including that so called reformer Deng Xiaoping are also steeped in the art of deception to subvert to the enemy from within. The Red Chinese have been manufacturing AK-47 assault rifles and smuggling them into the U.S. to arm the violent drug crazed street gangs. How better to undermine a country than to arm violent street gangs already crazed by drugs!

Sun Tzu advised that ones enemy must be paralyzed: "To subdue the enemy without fighting is the acme of skill...those skilled in war subdue the enemy's army without battle." To paralyze the enemy Sun Tzu advised that cleavages be created between superiors and inferiors so as to isolate and demoralize the enemy, thus "his will to resist is broken." What better way is there to demoralize workers then by sending their jobs overseas? Remember Hua's 1977 battle plan; "By opening the door of China-U.S. relations, we are opening the door which leads to revolution in the U.S."

Ironically, Clinton wants to continue to grant China most favored nation trading status, even though this has undermined America's industries one by one...shoes, clothing, toys, leather goods...500,000 U.S. jobs have been lost and a $33 billion trade deficit created because of Chinese imports. American workers have been severely penalized as a result of this lopsided trade imbalance with Red China.

In a May 28th editorial even the liberal Baltimore Sun is questioning the MFN status for Red China: "A sting operation by the Customs Service and the ATF has closed a pipeline of illegal assault rifles into this country for the use of murderers, drug lords, extorters & organized crime. And it has thrown an embarrassing monkey wrench into China-U.S. trade...like copyright piracy, illicit arms exports raise questions. One is whether China's intentions are malevolent."

Anyone who has studied Sun Tzu's Art of War knows the answer to that question. A resounding "Yes". China's intention is the destruction of our way of life. Red China is waging a war on America and our leaders seem unaware of it. We have been paralyzed; our will to resist has been weakened by the promise of nebulous future trade benefits from China.

Trade with the barbarians is the bait; a communist society will be the catch.

STOP THE LONG BEACH NAVAL SHIPYARD TRANSFER

(article from FAX)

Dear Honorable Members of the U.S. House of Representatives,

Under Article I, Section 8 of the U.S. Constitution, "The Congress shall have Power to..regulate Commerce with foreign nations..." and under Article I,Section 10" No State shall, without the consent of Congress...enter into any agreement or compact with another state, or with a foreign power..." Clearly it is unconstitutional for our military, governmental agencies, cities, municipalities, corporations and citizens to regulate trade or enter into sales/lease agreements with foreign powers involving U.S. properties or facilities, without the consent of Congress!

And while it is blatantly obvious Clinton violated his oath of office to preserve, protect and defend the Constitution, by twice meeting with the Long Beach Port Authority and City Mayor, using the power and influence of his oval office to seduce elected municipal officials to circumvent Congress and violate the Constitution by entering into a Port lease with COSCO, a Red China government company, Congressional implications in the Long Beach caper is just as chilling... because Congress simply does nothing!

Congress must act to vote. And it is only by witnessing Congressional debates and votes that the American people can become informed, and have an opportunity to respond in advance on matters which may adversely affect us or our national sovereignty and security. Thus, when Congress fails to vote.. the American people are deceived.

When Congress fails to vote, it abdicates its Constitutional responsibility to perform duties. (Executive orders or Presidential Declarations require only inaction, or no vote, to pass) Clinton and Congress by acquiescence have passed more than 200 such executive orders...and few of these have seen the public light of day.

Red Plans to Wreck U.S. Cities

These "Communist Rules for Revolution" have been reprinted in many publications since they were first discovered almost 80 years ago.

In May 1919 at Dusseldorf, Germany, the Allied forces discovered a copy of these "Rules." They were first printed in the United States in the Bartlesville (Oklahoma) Examiner-Enterprise the same year, 1919.

Almost 20 years later, in 1946, the attorney general of Florida obtained them from a known member of the Communist Party, who acknowledged that the "Rules" were then still a part of the Communist program for the United States.

1. Corrupt the young; get them away from religion. Get them interested in sex. Make them superficial; destroy their ruggedness.

2. Get control of all means of publicity, thereby:

3. Get people's minds off their government by focusing their attention on athletics, sexy books, plays and immoral movies.

4. Divide the people into hostile groups by constantly harping on controversial matters of no importance.

5. Destroy the people's faith in their natural leaders by holding the latter up to contempt, ridicule and disgrace.

6. Always preach true democracy, but seize power as fast and as ruthlessly as possible.

7. By encouraging government extravagance, destroy its credit, produce year(s) of inflation with rising prices and general discontent.

8. Incite unnecessary strikes in vital industries, encourage civil disorders and foster a lenient and soft attitude on the part of government toward such disorders.

9. Cause breakdown of the old moral values-honesty, sobriety, self-restraint, faith in the pledged word, ruggedness.

10. Cause the registration of all firearms on some pretext, with a view to confiscating them and leaving the populace helpless. The Spotlight

CHINESE MILITARY IN U.S.

by David Sanger, NY Times, March 2, 1997

(Posted on the Internet by Grassroots '97 (gra@inetport.com))

For years . . . China has demanded that in return for buying U.S. aircraft and other high-technology equipment companies like Boeing and McDonnell Douglas must teach Chinese the art of building airplane parts and train Chinese workers to do work that previously was performed in Seattle and St. Louis. That is why Boeing produces tail sections for many of its planes in China, and why McDonnell Douglas has built a vast aircraft factory near Shanghai.

And when Chinese officials are unsatisfied with the technology they obtain, they play the U.S. makers off against Airbus Industrie, which is eager for a piece of the China market.

These days China's efforts to squeeze more technological know-how out of the West extend far beyond aircraft. The demands for technology extend to computer and telecommunications companies. By some estimates, China's military has set up dozens of companies in the United States to both obtain technology and earn profits that flow directly to the military's coffers. Their operations are an increasing focus of attention at the CIA.

That is why Clinton was particularly embarrassed by the revelation that Wang Jun, the head of Polytechnologies, China's largest weapons maker, was invited to join a White House "coffee" last year, apparently by a large donor to the campaign who was trying to curry favor with the Chinese government. Weeks later officials of a U.S. subsidiary of the companies were arrested for trying to smuggle assault weapons to gangs in Los Angeles.

Other prominent Asians and Asian-Americans who played a role in the presidential campaign — including the Riady family in Indonesia — are major investors in China, and thus have a strong interest in seeing it gain entry into the WTO. -end- S.A.F.A.N. Internet Newsletter, No. 319

NEW FED PRISON RUN BY AUSTRALIANS

When the Federal transfer center was built near the airport in Oklahoma City recently, everyone suspected it would be used to implement a New World Order plan to jail those who resisted gun confiscation. We had no idea that the prison would be run by foreigners. That's right. The Federal transfer center is being used as a prison at this time and is run by Australians. This information comes directly from a prisoner that spent 2½ months at the prison. Bill Lord, a Texas gun dealer was railroaded on a charge of "Misdemeanor Willful Ignorance". He refused to lie to the judge. A con artist from Mexico bought a gun from Mr. Lord. The ATF said that "A white guy who should have had more sense than to sell a gun to a Mexican woman." She was a career con artist and felon. She cut a deal with the feds to convict him of a misdemeanor. Mr. Lord said that the jails were over crowded in Texas, so they transferred him to the Federal prison near the airport in Oklahoma City. he said it was like spending a year at a regular jail. Here are some excerpts from a letter Bill Lord wrote to Peter Maas of Parade Magazine. " ..the ATF is just a symptom of the real problem; there are too many laws and too many bureaucrats abusing those laws to trump up statistics. In my case for example, the judge rejected a plea bargain, stating he was only 27 years old and needed some on the job training. He later gave me an enhanced sentence, using the hypocritical excuse that I forced it to trial and failed to plead guilty! The prosecutor, while the case was going on, kept trying to pull all kinds of bungled entrapment schemes. The whole federal system needs overhaul, not just the ATF. I want to make it clear I hope the ATF does not survive. The ATF has destroyed my life on a bogus case."

EDITORS NOTE TO READERS

The Preparedness Expo in Dallas was a great success in terms of getting the truth to the public. The news media came in with all their cameras and yuppie newscasters and interviewed several speakers and vendors. Surprisingly, they gave a balanced report on the local news, and did not find the wild eyed paranoid extremist the liberals were claiming existed at these expo gatherings. If you have the opportunity to attend one of these in your area, I would encourage you to do so. People described it as a festive atmosphere, like meeting old friends, a exciting learning experience, etc.

The next expo will be in Orlando, Florida in June, 13th, 14th, & 15th. At the Central Florida Fairgrounds. They start on Fridays at noon and go to 9pm, on Saturdays they start at 9 or 10 and go till 9pm. Other expos this year will be in Indianapolis, Portland, Oregon, and Denver, Colorado. Plus, we are hoping one will be scheduled this year in Nashville. The Patriot report is planning to have a booth at each of these expos.

I want to thank each of you who have supported this publication. Without your financial support and the time you spend in sending us reports this newsletter would not exist. This is truly a team effort to get the truth out to the nation so we can turn the tide against the push for globalism. If the nations of the world want to be free, then they should develop their nations based on the U.S. Constitution. We need not abandon our liberty, constitution and independence to achieve world peace and harmony. We can be the example to lead other nations, if only the international bankers were not sinister factor in all of this. There is no silver bullet to fix our nations problems, we will probably have to see things run their course before things get better. Our responsibility is to survive whatever chaos that happens, so we can be alive to re-establish a Constitutional republic. God Bless!

BURST OF LIGHT MAY PRECEDE SOLAR STORMS

Deseret News / Reuter News Service

San Francisco—Solar storms that can disrupt global power and telecommunications may be preceded by a bright burst of solar plasma that could give Earth a 20 to 40 hour warning, a scientist said Monday.

S.T. Wu, Director of the Center for Space Plasma and Aeronomic Research at the University of Alabama in Huntsville, told an American Geophysical Union conference in San Francisco that scientists at the center were working to develop ways to predict geomagnetic storms. "We are trying to develop numeric models for predicting these events, just like the models that meteorologists use to predict the weather," he said.

Solar storms can inject highly ionized particles into Earth's magnetic field. These solar bursts can cripple power systems on Earth and have been linked to disruptions to satellites and other telecommunications equipment.

Wu said it appeared that most geomagnetic storms were caused by so-called coronal mass ejections, which occur in the solar atmosphere and result in a bright burst of light. Special instruments aboard satellites could give scientists early warning of a coming storm.

"It takes from 20 hours to two days from when we see the bright outburst until these materials reach the Earth, so we would have time to warn everyone," Wu said.

MILITARY CHOPPERS INVADE CHARLOTTE, N.C.

THE 'INVASION' OF THIRD WARD

The Charlotte Observer, 3/6/97

- About 100 Army special operations troops descended on uptown for a secret drill.
- 12 helicopters, including special Black Hawks, swooped in Tuesday evening.
- Charlotte residents, rattled by hovering choppers and noises that sounded like explosions, flooded police and city offices with complaints.
- Another uptown training exercise, scheduled for Wednesday night, was canceled.

The Army on Wednesday called off its mock invasion of uptown Charlotte but left city leaders feeling wounded.

The night before, without warning, helicopters swooped over Third Ward, scaring residents with the sounds of simulated bombs and gunfire as commandos stormed a vacant warehouse.

Mayor Pat McCrory said the Army misled him about the scope of the drill when officers met with him in December. Other city officials said they knew nothing at all.

"The city got hoodooed," said City Council member Malachi Greene, who represents the district. "I think this was a case of the Keystone Defense Department. These guys were not truthful. They lied by omission."

McCrory said the Army called the exercises routine. "They would be in and out," McCrory said he had been told. "No one would know they were here."

City officials said secretive Army officers required officials to sign confidentiality agreements — keeping word from getting out.

People in Charlotte's Third Ward were watching TV, cooking dinner or just relaxing when they heard the helicopters Tuesday night — big helicopters and lots of them.

But when they ran outside, all they could see was fog and black sky — no moon, no stars, no lights on the aircraft they knew were over their heads.

"They were these ghostly ambiguous shapes making this really amazing noise," said Joel Avrin, a UNC Charlotte math professor attending a poetry reading at a coffeehouse on Hill Street.

"You could hear the helicopters, but you couldn't see them," said Chip Ferguson, who lives in Third Ward. "Ewwwww. Spooky. It was really spooky."

"One of the helicopters was so low, you could actually see this man inside and guns hanging outside of it," said Shannon Dugan, 25, a waitress at Hartigan's Irish Pub in Third Ward, who headed outside when she heard the noise.

"We thought, what? Are we getting invaded?"

People walked up and down the street asking police officers, who were blocking intersections with their cars, what was happening.

"Supposedly, the cops told them that 'operations were being performed' and they needed to turn back," Dugan said.

"It was very weird," said Claude Hutchins, who was working at the Charlotte Climbing Center around the corner and had come outside to watch.

Some people said they saw what looked like ladders drop from the helicopters and men clamber down from them.

Hutchins said it appeared that the helicopters were landing, maybe dropping off men, then taking off again.

He went inside to turn on the TV, sure there would be a broadcast explaining it all.

"And they didn't talk about it on the news. That was the scary part," he said.

Sokalski said the operation, called Exercise Cauldron Chariot, featured 100 Fort Bragg soldiers, troop transports and a dozen helicopters, including Black Hawks modified for commando raids. Soldiers used training ammunition designed to look and sound like the real thing.

Army officials said a repeat of Tuesday's drill, also scheduled to be held in Third Ward, had been canceled.

The Army said the drill helped prepare soldiers for urban conflicts, such as terrorist attacks.

Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Chief Dennis Nowicki said he knew nothing about a drill until 2:30 p.m. Tuesday.

"We had no knowledge that the drill included flash-bangs and people jumping out of helicopters," Nowicki said. "... There was always this cloud of secrecy placed by the Department of Defense and Fort Bragg.

"When you're holding back information, you're deceiving," Nowicki added. "My advice to them was that they ought to rethink their policy

Jeanne Tatar and friend Donna Devereaux were at a coffeehouse on Hill Street when they heard the clattering of helicopters overhead.

"That was the strangest experience," said Tatar, development director for Charlotte's Habitat for Humanity.

"They were having a poetry reading in the coffeehouse, and then you heard little explosions and helicopters overhead.

"It was frightening. They were flying so low.

"I said to Donna, 'Geez, maybe we better get the heck out of here.'"

She said they saw four "pitch-black" helicopters flying low, none of them lit.

More quotes from the front lines

"It seemed like they (the helicopters) just kept closing in. We had no idea what to think. At one point someone said there were five helicopters circling, all of them with their lights off, all of them heavily armed."

— Jeff Syfert, a server at Hartigan's Irish Pub in Third Ward.

"I thought maybe it was a drug raid. Then I heard small explosions. And I thought maybe we were having a little L.A. out here."

— Walter Montgomery, who lives in a Third Ward condo.

USE A CELLULAR PHONE? BIG BROTHER IS 'WATCHING'

By Tim Reid
LONDON SUNDAY TELEGRAPH

LONDON. — The exact movements of people with mobile phones can be traced years later by employing new technology, the results of which are to be used for the first time in a murder trial.

Police hope to tie the alleged killer to the scene of his crime because, even though he did not use his phone, it was left switched on.

When activated, mobile phones are in effect miniature tracking devices that, unbeknownst to their owners, reveal their whereabouts at any given time, even if no calls are made or received.

Electronic signals pinpointing the device's location for incoming calls are stored in some phone companies' computers for up to two years.

Politicians and civil rights supporters fear the technology will give security agencies and computer hackers the power to monitor people's everyday movements.

Alan Duncan, a member of Parliament and an aide to Brian Mawhinney, the Conservative Party chairman, said: "It's pretty creepy to know that data like this can be kept for so long. It certainly merits new thinking about this technology."

In the coming murder trial, the suspect, arrested more than a year after the crime, claims he was miles away at the time. He told police that his mobile phone never left his side.

The prosecution will produce evidence alleging that from computer records, the police were able track the accused man's entire journey from his place of work to the murder scene and back again, even though no calls were made or received.

Mobile phones are connected to the telecommunications network via a series of "base stations," aerials atop tall buildings. Once switched on, the phone will send a signal to the nearest base stations, which will return it. That locates the position of the phone.

This information is fed into a computer. As the user and the phone move around, the phone links up with different base stations and its location will be logged every few minutes.

William Ostrom, head of corporate affairs at Cellnet, one of Britain's largest mobile phone companies, said the data are stored by Cellnet to help with its billing.

"We can tell where any one of our mobile phones was, as long as it was switched on, for any time and date in the past two years. It's exactly the same for all four mobile networks in Britain."

"It's something we don't really draw attention to."

potentially looking for more work than they have now. Add in another 11 million immigrants (legal and illegal) who entered the United States from 1980 to 1993 to search for more work and higher wages, and one has a sea of unemployed workers, underemployed workers, and newcomers looking for work."

"These millions of job-hunters lead to a more human-scale result that everyone can understand. At 5 p.m. a midsized metal-ceramic firm posts job openings for 10 entry-

THE REAL UNEMPLOYMENT RATE

Lester Thurow, who recently appeared on C-Span as guest speaker at the Washington Press Club is an economist who does not see the future as the Republicans and Democrats espouse, and that the working Americans future looks bleak. As Clinton pronounces there are more jobs than ever...keep the following in mind. According to Thurow, "Restrictive monetary and fiscal policies have unemployment rates not seen since the Great Depression."

Thurow: "In the fall of 1995, American's official unemployment rate was hovering around 5.7%. But like an iceberg that is mostly invisible below the waterline, officially unemployed workers are just a small part of the total number of workers looking for more work."

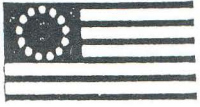

"If we combine the 7.5 to 8 million officially unemployed workers, the 5 to 6 million people who are not working but who do not meet any of the tests for being active in the workforce and are therefore not considered unemployed, and the 4.5 million part-time workers who would like full-time work, there are 17 to 18.5 million Americans looking for more work. This brings the real unemployment rate to almost 14%."

Slow growth has also generated an enormous contingent workforce of underemployed people. There are 8.1 million American workers in temporary jobs, 2 million who work "on call," and 8.3 million self-employed "independent contractors" (many of whom are downsized professionals who have very few clients but call themselves self-employed consultants because they are also looking for more work and better jobs.) Together these contingent workers account for another 14% of the workforce. In the words of Fortune magazine, "Upward pressure on wages is nil because so many of the employed are these 'contingent' workers who have no bargaining power with employers, and payroll workers realize they must swim in the same Darwinian ocean." Like the unemployed, these contingent workers generate downward wage pressures.

"In addition there are 5.8 million missing males (another 4% of the workforce) 25 to 60 years of age. They exist in our census statistics but not in our labor statistics. They have no obvious means of economic support. They are the right age to be in the workforce, were once in the workforce, are not in school, and are not old enough to have retired. They show up in neither employment nor unemployment statistics. They have either been dropped from, or have dropped out of, the normal working economy. Some we know as the homeless; others have disappeared in the underground illegal economy."

"Put these three groups together and in the aggregate about one-third of the American workforce is

Mr. McDougal, Clinton's partner in Whitewater has been sentenced to 3 years for his crimes. On a recent news program Mr. McDougal is quoted as saying, "The Clintons are like a tornado and I'm just another one of their victims."

According to the Feb. issue of the Ft. Payne Advertiser, DeKalb Co. will be facing increased train traffic. Officials are saying this is due to the Norfolk Southern Corp.'s acquisition of Conrail. However, local citizens in rural Alabama question the validity of the increase, as most will occur at night. Concerned citizens wonder if there is a connection between nightly train traffic and old POW camps in the area. During WWII, POW's were transported at night to the camps.

Canola is made from the rape seed, which is the most toxic of all food-oil plants & might cause vision irregularities, like Glaucoma, retinitis & macula lura degeneration. Rape oil was used in animal feed in England & Europe between 86-91 until it caused pigs, cows & sheep to go blind & lose their senses so they had to be shot. Many detrimental products are made from this oil.

FAREWELL TO AN AMERICAN PATRIOT

Recently a true American patriot and dear friend of ours passed away in Idaho. Her name was Eva Vail. She worked tirelessly for many years to wake our nation up. She was always there to help anyone who was trying to get out the truth. She was responsible for getting the Preparedness Expo to schedule an expo in 1992, right after the tragic Weaver siege. She traveled around the nation at her own expense to tell people what happened in Idaho. She was so full of energy that it was infectious. She was quick with a smile and always had a positive attitude about turning our nation around. She was a great example of what a so called "retired" person can do with their life. It will take a lifetime to figure out how she was able to organize her time so efficiently, and have twice the energy of those half her age. Even though patriots like Betsy Ross, Patrick Henry and Eva Vail are no longer with us, their memory lives on in us as we carry on the spirit of liberty. GE

MARK OF THE NEW WORLD ORDER

Is there a plan to identify everyone with an electronic "biochip" injected into our bodies? Will only those implanted with this unique electronic identification mark be permitted to "buy and sell" while the rest of us are hunted down as "outcasts" in the coming global government called the New World Order?

Is Big Brother's cashless economic system of global electronic enslavement here now and ready for implementation? What is the technology that will be used to control all of our buying and selling by the year 2000?

This extremely bold and shocking video will address all of these questions and more. It will explain clearly how existing and developing technology will be used to identify and control each and every one of us in the soon to be implemented global system of socialistic tyranny called the New World Order! 60 min. video...$15 (not a copy. DISCOVER NEW 'PATRIOT' MUSIC

Millennium 7 music is an excellent way to reach those who have a limited knowledge of the patriot movement. If grand parents want to see their grand children get involved in the patriot movement and to become better Christians, this is the perfect gift for them. If Mom and Dad want to see their teen age children become more aware of patriotism, this is the music that will reach them. If you want your friends and relatives to have a deeper understanding about the tyranny we are already under, this music will tell the story they need to hear.

Since the release of the new music album, patriots across the nation have been ordering the cassette. Because of the success of this project we will be putting another album within a year. We also plan to play this music on short wave radio and on FM Christian radio stations.
